- Demonstrating our commitment for continuous improvement (following the Plan-Do- Check-Act Cycle)
- Setting and verifying our objectives to improve the Business and our Management System
- Providing the necessary resources (means, personnel, etc.) to achieve our objectives and goals
- Reviewing the Organization and its activities (audits) to improve the effectiveness of the Management System.

- Engaging our employees, suppliers, customers and other stakeholders in ongoing dialogue
- Inspiring our teams by visible leadership and commitment to all above

Caring for our product quality, product delivery and stakeholder services is the responsibility of the management and every employee. The management ensures that this policy is known to employees, and that everyone knows how the policy should be applied.
