

PARTICIPATION CONDITIONS

---

Contestants participating in the competition are obliged to fulfill the following conditions.

As a team, it is imperative that each participant comply with all of the conditions.

- Turkish citizen or foreign undergraduate, master or PhD students from university studying related engineering and chemistry can apply and participate in all categories specified in the competition.
- Competitors can participate in the competition individually or in groups of up to 5 people.
- Competitors must continue their undergraduate studies from the application deadline to the project submission deadline.
- The contestants should have to be a student during 2018-2019 academic year.